

Blue Mountains City Church hosted close to 100 ladies for their annual 'Springtime Girls Night Out' on Friday evening 22nd September.

The night was a great success – providing a relaxed environment for women in the Blue Mountains to make new friends and experience a treat.

The evening was designed to pamper local women, with treatments available such as mini facials, manicures, neck and head massages, skin analysis and makeup demonstrations.

There was also plenty of time for shopping, with local businesses setting up stalls selling jewelry, shoes, handbags, books, creative memories merchandise, skin care and clothing.

The night was topped off with a beautiful fashion parade presented by 'Nicolette's Fashion & Accessories' of Blaxland East.

A huge thank you to all the volunteers from Blue Mountains City Church and our community who made this night possible. Local businesses who provided their invaluable support were: Nicolette's Fashion & Accessories, Ella Bache Springwood, Windows Of Heaven, A La Mode Beauty, Justine Grace Cosmetics, Bronwyn Ferguson Total Learning Consultant, Sue Taylor Creative Memories Consultant and Cool Fashion.
